SWINDLING WESTERN VILLAGERS. A Scheme Which is Successfully Worked in Illinois Country Towns.

The ways of making a living are as multi-furious as the road to heaven, and many of them are as unorthodox. A reporter came nerves an ingenious scheme the othersday, which was using worked with considerable success in the country towns of Himois, four follows composed the business purtnership. Fome bright morning they descend upon the penceful sountry village and soon the streets are flooded with circulars an-nouncing that Protessor John Smith will deliver a tecture that evening on "The Sinders, their religion, babets and peculiarities." fiscretis nothing new in the idea of a lecture, but the circular goes on to say that the lea turer was adopted at an early age by this peculiar people, and finally became an elder among them; that a genuine Shaker dance will be performed, and that Professors Jones, Brown and Rotanson—unexcelled artists in their way-will and plantation redolles, with guizar, banjo and tarabourine accompaniment. This is quite in the beaten track; but Prizes will be given to the lanest man, the prettiest girl, the most popular married we-man and the homeliest man, the prizes to be awarded according to the popular vote at ten cents a vote. Of course everybody turns out, including the-groung men with their best give. The locture is stuff critical from the mayelope im, the Shall r dates is a travesty on anything in the heavy allows or earth beneath, and the plantation inclodies are not annels letter.

prizes are exhibited from the platform, where distance lends exclusionard. Some extlassiastic youth costs a vote for a vidage belle. Another chap starts a rival beauty, med the confect grows interesting. At this juncture some values lenfor, have for the purpose by ends a heavy voto form colored woman. This Institute. The prices are then awarded, and for a 50 cent allown the echaners take in anywhere from $30 to $40 in dimes, to say nothing of the vote on the other prizes. Of course they loss no time in getting out in time. The country boy may be slow to see that he has been virtimused, but when his eyes are opened he is upt to use vigorous well aware of the fact. Next day the same programme to repeated in another town, and, burring a rough experience now and then, when their scheme is used through, the quartet make an easy and comfortable living.-Chicago Tribune.

How Winnipeg Lost a Citizen. When Winnipez was at the height of its boom, namely was so plentiful that even a poor anna carri d a big roll of bills carriessly stuffed into his packet, and the denominations were mostlers hundreds as lower. A young rado, reaching there with the sum of $101 as the sum of his worldly possessions. To keep up appearances he bad small falls changed into one $100 note, and wrapping this around the rest start of our to "out a splarge." With a party of quomium friends he strolled into a salona and "set 'em up" for the crowd. Then, named full of contingencies, he esten-tationally pulled the big bill off the roll and haid it on the bar. From the attendant: "Have you nothing smaller?"

"Sorry, no. But if you can't change it Pil hand you the amount next time Prain," and Americus reached out for the bill.

The heatenier quietly tore the note in two
